

Responses to Responses

I am very interested in hearing your thoughts into the kinds of feedback you received to your writing this semester. I have my own theories about what worked and what didn't, but I'd like to check my impressions against yours. So, could you please:

- a) Rate each of the following activities on a scale of 1 (completely useless) to 10 (really helpful).
- b) Offer a few comments on why you felt the activity was helpful (or not), if I should continue it (or not), and what changes you might suggest I make.

Thanks!

~jh
